CAIGED ANGEL PERFORMING AT THE JEWELL RIDGE HOMECOMING

The Jewell Ridge Recreation & Development Corporation and the Jewell Ridge Fire Department are sponsoring the fifth quinquennial Jewell Ridge Homecoming in Jewell Ridge, Virginia. These organizations sponsor a 4th of July celebration each year; however, celebrate the community's heritage every five years by hosting a JEWELL RIDGE HOMECOMING July 3, 4 and 5, 2009.

CAIGED ANGEL members have been in the Recording Studio working on their new CD (all original songs). This CD is jam packed with everything from Love Songs to Metal Rock and even a hillbilly attempt at hip-hop! A little something for Everyone! High energy music of the ages for all ages! With years of experience and countless shows under their belts, CAIGED ANGEL knows how to entertain an audience from the very young to the very young-at-heart. The band offers up a diverse mix of music including classic rock, country, bluegrass, blues, disco (yes, disco!), even a little Hillbilly Hip-Hop, and some current stuff too. There's something for everyone at a CAIGED ANGEL show! CAIGED ANGEL is an audience participation band who believes "the more the merrier" and loves to share the fun, the stage, and the music with the fans. CAIGED ANGEL has an awesome fan base who enthusiastically supports the band and helps to make every show one to remember.

Craftsmen interested in having a booth should call to reserve their space. The cost is $35.00. All exhibits are located inside the Learning Center. No food vendors are permitted.

Anyone having old photographs, newspapers, school yearbooks, or other memorabilia on the subject of the Jewell Ridge community are asked to bring to the homecoming and display in the Memorabilia Room. The facility is locked and security is on site.

The concessions and exhibits will open Friday, July 3rd. We have a variety of exhibitors; everything from jewelry to framed art to scented candles to hand made furniture. Southwest Virginia Community College and the Tazewell County Sheriff's Department will have exhibits.

There will be concessions throughout the three day event, breakfast served, hotdogs, hamburgers, French fries, funnel cakes, home made items, and much, much more.

Bring your own lawn chairs. Come early and leave late. For more information call 276-964-9088.
